

HONORING WITH THE LIPS

Pharisees and scribes once came to Jesus, chastising Him for not honoring the traditions of their forefathers (Mat. 15:1–2). He responded that they were violating God’s commandments by their human traditions, and cited a tradition as proof (vv. 3–6). He then excoriated them as follows:

Ye hypocrites, well did Isaiah prophecy of you, saying, This people honoreth me with their lips; But their heart is far from me. But in vain do they worship me, Teaching as their doctrines the precepts of men (vv. 7–9).

Upon reading His scathing rebuke of such hypocrisy among His contemporaries, it is only natural to inquire if such hypocrisy exists today.

Notably, those against whom Jesus originally railed were religious leaders.

They professed orally to be servants of God, but their behavior proved that their hearts were far removed from their lips. They were “talking the talk,” but not at all “walking the walk” of true religion. Things have changed little from then to now.

Religious leaders routinely “honor with the lips” the God and Savior Whose authority they despise by flouting His revealed will. For example, religious leaders say:

- “One church is as good as another”—all of them have Jesus’ approval, but Jesus said He would build only one church, of which He is head and Savior (Mat. 16: 18; Eph. 5:23).
- All the conflicting doctrines and practices of denominationalism are God’s will, but the Bible commands uniformity of doctrine and practice (John 17:20–21; 1 Cor. 1:10; Eph. 4:3).
- Sinners may be saved by saying “the sinner’s prayer,” but the Bible tells every believing sinner to repent and be baptized in order to be saved (Acts 2:37–47).
- Baptism consists of sprinkling, pouring, or immersion, but the Bible teaches that baptism is a burial in water (Acts 8: 38–39; Rom. 6:4; Col. 2:12).
- Baptism is optional after salvation, but Jesus said, “He that believeth and is baptized shall be saved: (Mark 16:16; cf. John 3:5; Acts 2:38; 22:16; Rom. 6:4; Gal. 3:27; Tit. 3:5).
- When Jesus comes He will reign in a millennial kingdom on earth, but Jesus said, “My kingdom is not of this world” (John 18:36; cf. Mark 9:1; Col. 1:13; Heb. 12:23, 28).

Likewise, political leaders often do the same. They may be shameless fornicators, drunks, thieves, and blasphemers, but around voting time they can glibly say, “God bless you,” or “I’m praying for you”—a terrible mockery.

Jesus said that all such “lip-servants” are blind guides of the blind whom God will eventually uproot (Mat. 15:13–14).

5101 East University Drive, Greenbelt Business Park
(HWY 380/377, 3 mi. E of Loop 288), Denton, Texas 76208
For free Bible study by mail, call 940.387.1429 or 940.323.2120
or e-mail northpointcoc@hotmail.com
Visit our web site at northpointcoc.com.